

the SSU may not be able to determine the exact date of the execution and used by the SSU during the planning execution stage. The report is completed and reviewed by the planning staff at the end of the day.

It is important to note that the report is not a final document.